The Brain Injury Alliance of Washington's 13th Annual Gala, Dinner & Auction

Unbreakable.

Dear Friends of BIAWA,

Unbreakable – spirit, persistence, dedication, support, community. This runs through the veins of all who are here. We have grown and come together to form the Unbreakable spirit of BIAWA and all who are a part of us. This includes our Board, staff, individuals we serve, volunteers, families, professionals, and the variety of groups who all intersect at BIAWA. By being here, you are part of the Unbreakable thread that moves us forward to do all we can today and in the future. You ensure that we are able to implement our mission to increase public awareness, support, and hope.

Simply put, tonight changes lives. This event has allowed BIAWA to continue leading in the state and nation by providing innovative, critical services and supports across Washington State. It is because of your generosity that we are able to provide support groups, social services, enrichment classes, research contributions, and more, to our community at no cost.

Our capacity to serve continues to expand. BIAWA's Resource Center, outreach events, education and development trainings, Brain Health & Wellness classes, and social engagement activities are seeing their highest numbers to date. As such, we continue to seek out additional ways to support survivors, families, friends, and caregivers through ongoing conversations and partnerships statewide.

We welcome the new guests joining us tonight. A Brain Injury is not a onetime event, it is a life-altering moment that will forever affect the survivor, their family, and their community. Being here tonight ensures that there will be that welcoming community to those in need.

Raise your bid cards high and often! Together we are an Unbreakable force! Consider the Gala tie that binds, that connects us all to one another, tonight and throughout the year. By being here tonight, you are part of a community that cares, and you are making a tremendous difference in the future of many.

Thank you!

Richard H. Adler, Attorney-at-Law and Founding Principal of Adler Giersch, has been involved with the Brain Injury community and Brain Injury Alliance of Washington (BIAWA) for many years, including as a Board Member, Officer, President, and Chairperson of its Executive Board.

He authored the Zackery Lystedt Law, named after his client. This legislation became the first in the nation aimed at preventing preventable Brain Injuries in youth athletes. Richard championed its adoption and implementation in all 50 states.

Richard has authored legal and medical articles on traumatic Brain Injury and has played a key role in developing and fostering ongoing partnerships between the BIAWA and University of Washington Medical Center, Swedish Medical Center, Evergreen Health, UW Traumatic Brain Injury Model Systems, UW Sports Concussion Clinic, Seattle Seahawks, NFL and many business organizations.

He has been recognized for his work by the American College of Sports Medicine, Seattle Business Magazine as a "Best Attorney", SuperLawyers, and American Association of Justice. Richard received the Advocacy Award from the BIAWA and Seattle's Jefferson Award for his public service.

Richard was also a key voice in the enactment of the Tommy Manning Act, a state bill that requires a portion of funds collected from traffic violations to be directed to the Washington State Traumatic Brain Injury Council to support survivors of brain trauma.

The attorneys and staff at Adler Giersch are passionate and dedicated advocates for their clients and community, and donate countless hours and sponsorship roles at many BIAWA events. Other examples of their advocacy in the Brain Injury community include establishing the Zackery Lystedt Sports Concussion Endowed Academic Chair and the Endowed Fund for the Advancement of Traumatic Brain Injury Research to foster innovative research in traumatic Brain Injury. The Brain Injury Alliance of Washington is incredibly grateful for their guidance and longstanding support, and the organization is honored to celebrate them this evening.
